

CUSTOM STAINLESS STEEL DOORS AND FRAMES

Our stainless steel doors and frames are designed to withstand the most demanding environments while delivering exceptional performance and durability. They are available in Type 304 for aesthetic appeal or Type 316 for enhanced corrosion resistance.

Ideal for architectural showcase projects, our high quality doors and frame are manufactured to meet or exceed HMMA 866 standards.

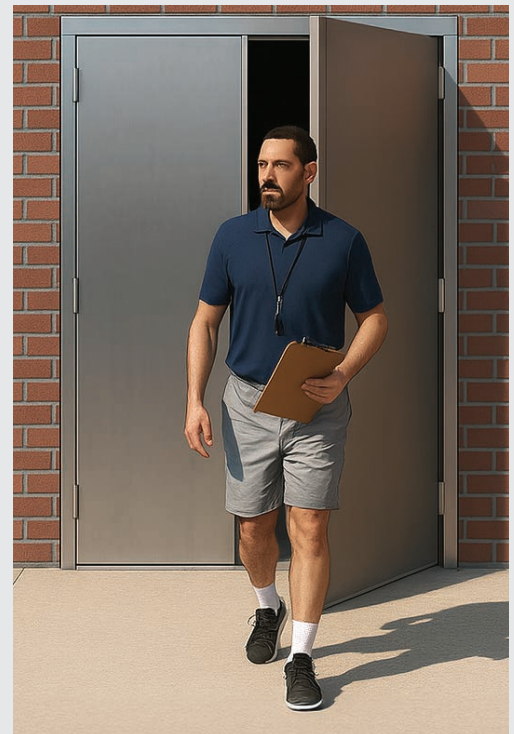

Aesthetics

- Churches
- Theaters and Concert Halls
- Kitchens and Restaurants
- Lobbies and Main Entrances
- Conference Rooms

Corrosive

- Swimming Pools
- Skating Rinks
- Clean Rooms and Labs
- Infirmary (First Aid) Rooms
- Medical Operating or Exam Rooms

FEATURES & BENEFITS OF STAINLESS STEEL DOORS AND FRAMES

FEATURES

- 18, 16, Ga. face skins.
- Stainless Steel
 - 304 or 316 with #4 brushed finish
- Craft honeycomb core or polystyrene
- Edge Construction
 - Mechanical interlocked with seam.
- 16 Ga. inverted top and bottom channels. Flush top and/or bottom caps available.
- Beveled edge
- Hardware reinforcements:
 - 7 Ga Butts
 - 14 Ga. closer
 - 16 Ga. Lock box
 - 12 Ga. Plates for surface hardware
- Lite kits
 - Cut out for lite kits and louvers
 - Pre-manufactured lite kits and louvers are optional
- Frame construction: Face welded, Full Profile, or KD Drywall

BENEFITS

- Exceptional durability
- Fire-rated up to Class A
- Superior corrosion resistance
- Type 304 Alloy: Standard corrosion resistance
- Type 316 Alloy: Heavy-duty corrosion resistance
- Customizable design

Crating • LTL • Box Truck
Pool Truck • Dedicated Dry Van

COMMERCIAL DOOR
MANUFACTURING

Commercial Door Manufacturing is a premier provider of commercial steel doors and frames for large building projects throughout the Southwest. Our custom metal shop in Albuquerque, New Mexico, uses the latest sheet metal fabrication technology to meet complex, custom requirements quickly and efficiently.

Commercial Door Manufacturing
2914 Girard NE
Albuquerque, NM 87107
T: 505.881.1034